

Dangerous Goods Waiver Form

To ensure the safety of your shipment as well as the safety of others, the international port authorities in joint collaboration with customs, has declared certain hazardous products / items to be unsafe hence, deemed illegal/prohibited to ship within house hold effect shipments. If there is a requirement to ship these items, then the necessary permits must be obtained from both the origin and destination countries. You must speak with your coordinator about such items before they can be included in your shipment.

It is the responsibility of the shipper to ensure that the shipment does not contain any of the following items:

- Guns & Firearms including flares, ammunition, gun powder, dynamite, fireworks or explosives
- Any weapons or dangerous objects including swords and pellet guns
- Chemicals, including batteries, house hold chemicals, paints, bleaches, solvents, acid, etc.
- Compressed gas items including aerosol sprays, propane tanks, fire extinguishers, scuba tanks, or any other compressed gas cylinders.
- Fuels, gasoline, oil, lighter fluid, gas torches, charcoal, matches
- Drugs, medicines, narcotics
- Pornography
- Raw wood, live plants or any items with soil
- Perishable food products including meats, vegetable, fruits and dairy products

In addition to these hazardous materials, the following items should not be shipped with your house hold goods and it is recommended that you remove these items prior to the packer's arrival.

- Jewelry, watches, Furs
- Money, coin collections, stamp collections
- Important or legal documents
- Other items and collections of high value

All household goods entering into any country will be reviewed by customs and possibly inspected either visually or through X-Ray.

By signing below, you have confirmed that your shipment does not contain any of the items listed above and agree to accept full liability if any prohibited item(s) are found within your shipment.

I _____ have read and understood the information provided and I do declare that my freight does not contain any of the prohibited items.

Signature

Date